2. The federal government recently settled a civil lawsuit brought by Omar Khadr, a Canadian citizen who was detained at age 15 by the United States for ten years at Guantanamo Bay for his role in a firefight between U.S. soldiers and Taliban fighters in Afghanistan, during which he is alleged to have thrown the grenade that killed an American combat medic. The settlement included a compensation payment of $10.5 million and a public apology from the Government of Canada to Mr. Khadr. The following statements were tweeted by Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and Conservative Party leader Andrew Scheer, in the wake of the settlement being made public. Which comes closest to your point of view?

The Charter of Rights and Freedoms protects all Canadians, every one of us, even when it is uncomfortable. This is not about the details or merits of the Khadr case. If government violates any Canadian's Charter rights, we all end up paying for it.	515 51%	77 57%	51 45%	33 50%	199 52%	121 51%	34 50%	149 49%	96 47%	142 55%	76 52%	137 54%	377 51%
Make no mistake. This settlement is a choice made by Justin Trudeau. What's worse: Justin Trudeau is hiding it from Canadians. This payout is a slap in the face to the men and women in uniform who face incredible danger every day to keep us safe. If Omar Khadr is truly sorry for what he has done, that money should be given directly to the family of Sergeant Speer.	485 49%	59 43%	61 55%	32 50%	185 48%	114 49%	34 50%	153 51%	106 53%	117 45%	70 48%	116 46%	369 49%
