

André Lewitcki

Director representing employees and member of the Appointments and Compensation Committee

André Lewitcki began his career in 1979 as a sales representative for Japy, Gestetner and 3D System until 1990. In the 1990s, André Lewitcki was involved in several projects with Human Rights organizations (in relation to Eastern Europe and the former USSR). He was also a journalist and presenter for the Solidarnosc Radio. Since 1999, André Lewitcki has been Head of Surveys for Ipsos.

André Lewitcki holds a G2 Baccalauréat, a Technical Degree in Marketing Techniques from the IUT of Troyes, a Diploma in audiovisual journalism from ESRA and is a graduate of INALCO (Language and Civilization Diploma).