As you may know, during a recent G7 meeting in Quebec, Prime Minister Trudeau said that U.S. tariffs against Canadian steel and aluminum are insulting to Canada. In response, President Trump called Prime Minister Trudeau dishonest and weak, and U.S officials said that Canada backstabbed the United States. Thinking about this issue, to what extent do you agree or disagree with the following: - Canada shouldn't over react to President Trump's recent comments - it was just political posturing related to the NAFTA negotiations.
