

Cordray (D) and DeWine (R) Are Tied in the Ohio Race for Governor

Brown (D) leads Renacci (R) by a considerable margin

Washington, D.C., September 26, 2018 — Today, Ipsos released new election data in partnership with Reuters and the University of Virginia Center for Politics, showing that the Ohio race for governor is tied between Democrat Richard Cordray (44%) and Republican Mike DeWine (45%). However, in the race for Ohio's senate seat, Democrat Sherrod Brown (50%) leads Republican Jim Renacci (39%) by a considerable margin.

Voters are motivated to vote primarily by healthcare (16%) and the economy (16%).

For more information on Ohio and other races, please reference the Political Atlas, an interactive website collaboration between Ipsos and the University of Virginia Center for Politics.

The Political Atlas site provides daily updates of the main issues affecting citizens in all 50 states, along with poll and social media indicators for every congressional, senate, and gubernatorial race in the country, with expert assessments. Bringing this to the midterms provides further resolution to the ebbs and flows of the campaigns. Ipsos uses machine learning and natural language processing algorithms to collect and categorize over 5 million individual posts a day.
