

Emerging trends: The forces shaping the future today

GLOBAL EDITION

The future may be inevitable, but it comes to different places at different times. Whether we look at GDP projections, population growth or people's openness to new technology, we can see the future emerging in dynamic, mobile-first places from Bangkok to Belo Horizonte. Explore some of the forces shaping the future now.

01. The convenience gap

For busy consumers, convenience unlocks the time and space for people to pursue the things that matter to them. And, as people increasingly seek out and pay for products and solutions that simplify their lives, brands have new opportunities to play a truly meaningful role in people's lives.

AMONG PEOPLE SURVEYED GLOBALLY:

90%

are actively looking for ways to simplify their lives 86%

What this means for marketers

ELEVATE

Set a new standard in convenience—give people the gift of time to earn a timeless place in their hearts and wallets. Consider leveraging technology to help people discover things they'll love, reduce the path to purchase to a single moment and seal the deal with mobile payments.

EXPERIMENT

Ask yourself whether you're embracing change as readily as your audience is, and provide new paths to interact and connect. Whether you engage people via Live Shopping, AR or interactive polls in Stories, the goal should be adding value vs. using the technology in and of itself.

EXPAND

Harness the power of community to create deeper connections—from Facebook Groups to innovative collaborations.

EVOLVE

Draw inspiration from the mobile-first and agile innovation of entrepreneurs around the world. Consider the power of partnerships that could not only deepen your local relevance, but help uplift local businesses too.
