

Ipsos MORI Coronavirus polling

April 2021

What should happen to any of the UK's excess vaccines?

When the UK has enough doses of COVID-19 vaccines to meet the immediate needs of protecting the UK population, which of the following do you think should happen?

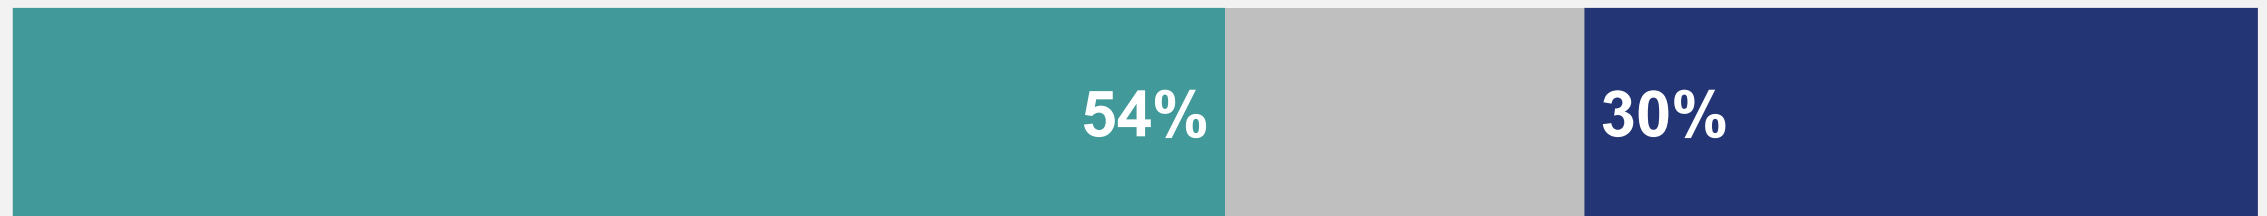

The UK should pass on some of its extra doses of COVID-19 vaccine to be used in other countries

The UK should keep all of its extra doses of COVID-19 vaccine in case it needs them in the future

27-28 April 2021

5-8 February 2021

Base: 1,016 Online British adults aged 16-75, 27-28 April 2021. Please note that in February this question was asked to adults aged 18-75.

What should happen to any of the UK's excess vaccines?

And now thinking about what we should do when the UK has enough vaccines to meet its immediate needs, to what extent, if at all, would you support or oppose each of the following?

Support

Oppose

The UK giving some of its COVID-19 vaccines to poorer countries for free but making richer countries pay

April 21 67% 13%

Feb 21 63% 13%

The UK giving some of its COVID-19 vaccines to other countries for free

April 21 58% 19%

Feb 21 43% 27%

The UK giving some of its COVID-19 vaccines to other countries if they pay for them

April 21 44% 24%

Feb 21 55% 15%

Base: 1,016 Online British adults aged 16-75, 27-28 April 2021. Please note that in February this question was asked to adults aged 18-75.

Support for sending COVID-19 vaccines to India

As you may know, levels of coronavirus are currently very high in India. To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose the UK giving some of its vaccines to India under the following circumstances...?

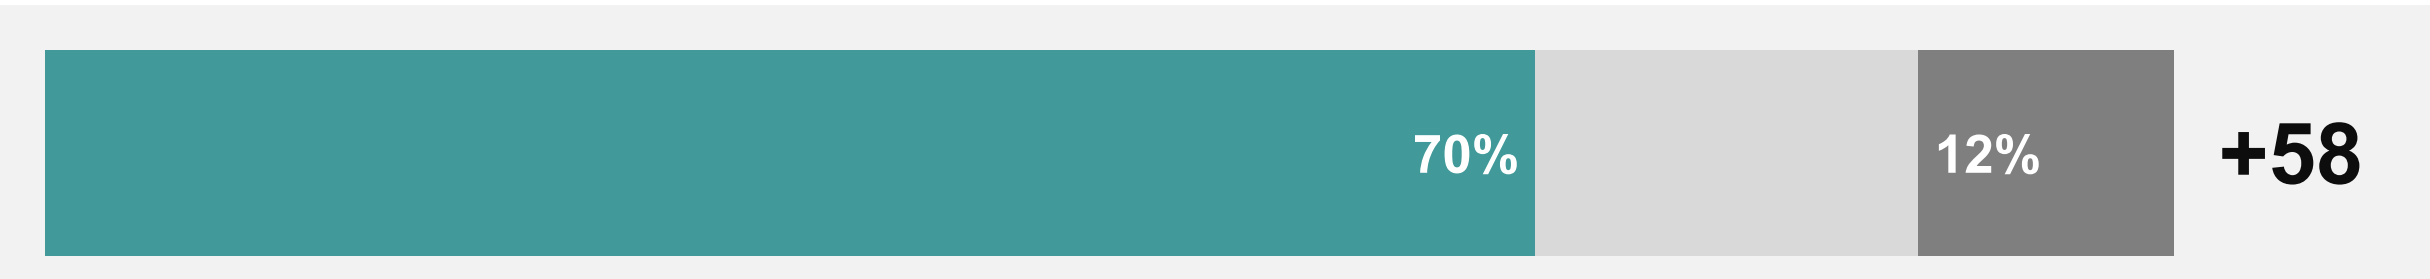

Base: 1,016 Online British adults aged 16-75, 27-28 April 2021.

Support for sending medical supplies to India

As you may know, the UK has sent 495 oxygen concentrators and 140 ventilators to India in the past week. Other countries around the world have also started sending similar supplies. To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose the UK sending these medical supplies to India?

And to what extent, if at all, would you support or oppose the UK sending more of these medical supplies to India in the coming weeks?

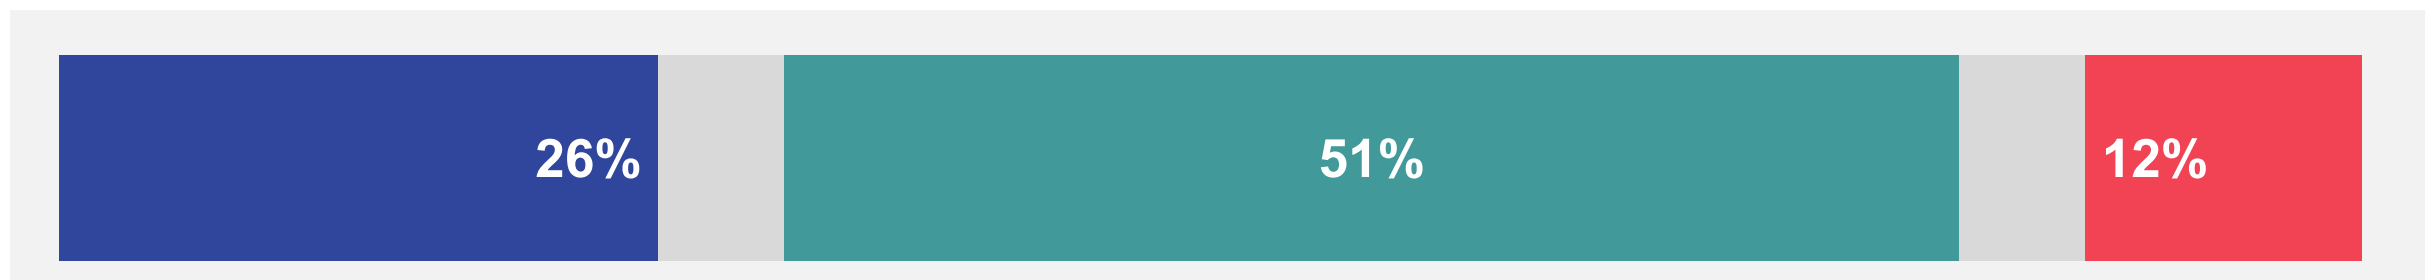

Base: 1,016 Online British adults aged 16-75, 27-28 April 2021.

Attitudes towards the UK helping poorer countries deal with the COVID-19 pandemic

Do you think the UK is currently doing more, less, or about the same as other rich countries in the aid it is giving poorer countries to help them deal with the COVID-19 pandemic?

And do you think the UK should be doing more, less, or about the same as other rich countries in the aid it is giving poorer countries to help them deal with the COVID-19 pandemic?

Base: 1,016 Online British adults aged 16-75, 27-28 April 2021.

Ipsos MORI

Coronavirus Polling April 2021

For more information

Kelly Beaver
Managing Director
kelly.beaver@ipsos.com

Gideon Skinner
Research Director
gideon.skinner@ipsos.com

Cameron Garrett
Senior Research Executive cameron.garrett@ipsos.com