

Ipsos Public attitudes towards strike action by Junior doctors

April 2023

Support remains highest for nurses, ambulance workers and junior doctors taking strike action

As you may know, workers from some sectors have been considering or have participated in strikes this year. From what you know or have heard, to what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose strikes by each of the following, if they did decide to strike?

Base: 1,092 Online British Adults 16-75, 31st March – 1st April 2023

6 in 10 Britons think that nurses and ambulance workers are paid to little and around half say the same about junior doctors

In your opinion, on average would you say the following professions or group of workers are paid too much, too little or about the right amount?
