

Not Enough. Global Perceptions on Child Hunger and Malnutrition

45%

of global deaths among children under 5 years old are caused by poor nutrition. 44% grossly underestimate this figure, guessing less than 30%.

■ IN THE LAST 30 DAYS

37%

globally say their children do not get the proper nutrients every day

21%

of children have gone to bed hungry from a lack of available food

37%

of parents have not known where their next meal will come from 46%

of adults have worried about finding the money needed to buy food

39%

of adults have eaten less than they should because there wasn't enough money for food

30%

of adults have had no food in the house because of a lack of money

Top Three Causes of Child Hunger in Your Country

Top Three Concerns About the Wellbeing of Children Around the World

Globally, the main cause of hunger is thought to be conflict and war (45%).

We have enough food for everyone in the world if we share (84%).

Concern about Child Hunger and Malnutrition

VERY + SOMEWHAT CONCERNED

33% think that child hunger will be eliminated globally by 2030.

Solving Child Hunger

Governments are responsible for solving child hunger (68%) and are also the most trusted to do so (40%). Parents and guardians are second on responsibility and trust.

In the Past 12 Months

43% have given food to someone in need and 21% have donated to charity.

These are the results of a 16-country survey conducted for World Vision International by Ipsos in August and September 2023.

© 2023 Ipsos. All rights reserved.