

Singapore and Climate Change

63%

of Singaporeans say the country should do more in the fight against climate change, down from 70% in 2023.

81%

of Singaporeans are concerned about the impacts of climate change in the country.

37%

think Singapore is a world leader in the fight against climate change.

50%

think transitioning to renewable energy will lead to an increase in household energy prices.

If individuals like me do not act now to combat climate change, we will be failing future generations. % agree

2021

NA

2022

NA

2023

70%

2024

66%

2025

69%