

The government has set a number of priorities and milestones it wants to achieve by the end of this Parliament. We have tested public perceptions towards a range of these.

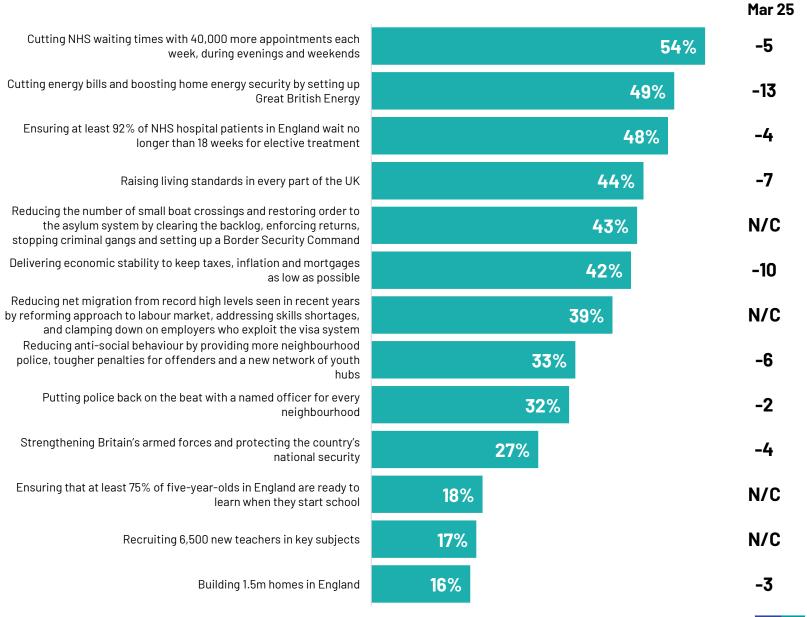

- Raising living standards in every part of the UK
- Delivering economic stability to keep taxes, inflation and mortgages as low as possible
- Building 1.5m homes in England
- Ensuring at least 92% of NHS hospital patients in England wait no longer than 18 weeks for elective treatment
- · Putting police back on the beat with a named officer for every neighbourhood
- Recruiting 6,500 new teachers in key subjects
- Cutting energy bills and boosting home energy security by setting up Great British Energy
- Reducing net migration from the record high levels seen in recent years by reforming our approach to the labour market, addressing skills shortages here in the UK, and clamping down on employers who exploit the visa system
- Reducing the number of small boat crossings and restoring order to the asylum system by clearing the backlog, enforcing returns, stopping criminal gangs and setting up a Border Security Command
- Strengthening Britain's armed forces and protecting the country's national security
- Cutting NHS waiting times with 40,000 more appointments each week, during evenings and weekends
- Reducing anti-social behaviour by providing more neighbourhood police, tougher penalties for offenders and a new network of youth hubs
- Ensuring that at least 75% of five-year-olds in England are ready to learn when they start school
