As you may know, there is currently some controversy about last year's APEC (Asia Pacific Economic Co-operation) Conference in Vancouver, which was a meeting of leaders from several Pacific Rim countries, including Prime Minister Jean Chretien.

The RCMP has been accused of using too much force to disperse student protesters on the University of British Columbia campus.

Based on what you have seen, read or heard, do you think the RCMP used a reasonable or unreasonable amount of force to disperse student protesters at the APEC conference?

An official investigation into how the student protestors were treated by the RCMP, and potential involvement by the Prime Minister's Office in the incident, is underway.

Which is closest to your point of view?
