As you are likely aware, it has been almost one year since the terrorist attacks in the United States on September 11, 2001. Since that time, a great deal has happened, and what I'd like you to do is to reflect on the past year's events when I ask you the following questions. I'm going to read you a statements and I'd like you to tell me if you strongly agree, somewhat agree, somewhat disagree or strongly disagree with the statement: Osama Bin Ladin is alive ?

Now, since the events of September 11, 2001, the Federal government has done a number of things to deal with Canada's national security and economy. I'd like you to tell me if what the Federal government has done in this area is too much, not enough, or enough: Support the United States and its war on terrorism ?
