

	Total
Sample size	1815
How would you "grade" your personal performance in taking actions that help to preserve and protect the environment?
A	6%
B	48%
C	37%
D	5%
F	1%
Don't know	3%
To what degree, if at all, does your concern for the environment impact your actions and decisions regarding each of the following? (Percentages shown are respondents who say "very significant impact")
The car you drive	21%
The food that you buy	19%
The detergent or cleaning products that you use	27%
Waste management at home (recycling composting)	56%
Principal mode of transportation	24%
How significant an impact, if at all, do you think the actions of individual consumers have in contributing to climate change?
Very significant impact	30%
Somewhat significant impact	44%
Not very significant impact	19%
Not at all significant impact	6%
Don't know	1%
Significant impact (very + somewhat)	74%
Of the following groups, who do you believe bears the greatest responsibility for fighting climate change?
Governments	14%
Companies	14%
Individuals	7%
All of them equally	62%
Don't know	3%

Survey fielded March 26 - April 1, 2008
Margin of error \pm 2.3%, 19 times out of 20.