4. Knowing everything that you have seen, heard and learned about the Second World War, including the high number of injuries and casualties among Canadian troops, as well as their ultimate victory over the Axis Powers, imagine it is 1939, you are 20 years old and living in Canada. Would you have signed up to serve in the Second World War?

5. At various times in Canada's history, tens of thousands of Canadians have volunteered to fight overseas or on the home front. Could you ever foresee an international conflict that would compel you to volunteer for military service, including a possible combat role? (That is, a personal internal need or obligation to volunteer for military service)?
