5_1. [Commit to give additional funding for food security programs] Last year 925 million people didn't have enough to eat. This year's soaring food prices mean that people living in poverty are being forced to eat less food and less nutritious food. Canada will meet with other G-20 countries to discuss this situation in November. To what extent do you agree or disagree that Canada should:

5_4. [Make sure that food security programs support small rural farmers in developing countries] Last year 925 million people didn't have enough to eat. This year's soaring food prices mean that people living in poverty are being forced to eat less food and less nutritious food. Canada will meet with other G-20 countries to discuss this situation in November. To what extent do you agree or disagree that Canada should:
