Q2. As you may know, later this year the Liberal party will enter a leadership race to select its permanent leader. The current Party rules state that Bob Rae, presently the interim leader, cannot run for the permanent leadership. However, the party executive is meeting to decide whether or not he should be allowed to run. To what extent do you agree or disagree with the following statements: 2) I consider the federal Liberal Party to be a party of the past, not a party of the future?
