

Q7. Some people say that in his five months of governing, Premier Jim Prentice has shown that his style and plan is different than the previous Conservative government and he deserves to be re-elected to give him the opportunity to move forward with his own mandate. Other people say that regardless of what Premier Jim Prentice has accomplished in his five months of governing or what his plans are, he just doesn't represent enough change from the previous Conservative government and it's time for another provincial party to take over and run the province. Which of these statements is closest to your point of view?
