1_2. One of the commitments that Prime Minister Trudeau and the Liberals ran on during the election was that, if they were elected, they would make major changes to Canada's election system and how we elect Members of Parliament. Their commitment did not specify exactly how they would change the system. The following statements are about this commitment. For each, please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree: - Since the Liberal platform included a promise to change the election system, and they won a majority government, they should feel free to change the election system even if the other major parties disagree with the changes
